Exploitation of Girls

†227. DR. PRABHA THAKUR: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether a number of girls of poor families are lured and being sold in the gutf countries;

(b) the details thereof and the States where such incidents are on the rise; and

(c) the details of measures Government have taken to check such immoral sex exploitations of under-age poor and innocent girls and the extent of success Government have achieved in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO GAVIT): (a) to (c) There have been reports about a few cases where young girls were brought from India on Visit/Employment Visa by unscrupulous agents and the touts at UAE forced them to indulge in immoral^activities.

Our mission in UAE have been informing the local police authorities about such cases and requesting them to take appropriate action. The Ministry of External Affairs has also advised Ministry of Labour to take precautionary measures, like:

(i) Issuing instructions to the State Governments to create an awareness among job seekers through print/visual media about the potential dangers if they take any job without proper verification. The agents involved in arranging Visas may also be identified and appropriate action be taken to curtail such undesirable activities.

(ii) The women coming on Employment Visa without Emigration Check not Required (ECNR stamp) in their passport should not be allowed emigration clearance unless they produce attested copies of relevant documents from the Consulate/ Embassy and those coming on Visit Visa should produce a sponsorship declaration signed by the sponsor and attested by the concerned Indian Mission.
